Tangier, Auguſt 1.

THe Alcaide of Alcaſar, according to the beſt account we yet have, having drawn his Army into theſe Parts for no other purpoſe then to oppoſe the landing of a French Army; and for that reaſon having made a Truce with us for two months, has according to their barbarous Principles, broke it; for on the 25th paſt about midnight, he alarmed us with the approach of his whole Army, within Musket-ſhot of our Lines, and ſome of their parties advanced to the Lines where while ſome diverted our Forts with their ſhot, others made two Breaches in our Lines between Anne and James Forts, and James and Monmouth Forts, through which about 30 Horſe might march abreaſt; which treacherous deſign of the Alcaide, was not ſo cunningly carried on, but his Excellency had ſome notice of it, and had time to reinforce the Forts with Men and Neceſſaries. We ſuppoſe that after they had made the Breaches, they advanced with their whole Army very near to Anne's Lane-end: for we plainly heard their ſhouts, and the noiſe of their Drums; but they finding us well prepared, and the loſs they ſuſtained in the laſt attempt upon our Forts, being freſh in their memory, we ſuppoſe the Leaders could not make their men advance farther; for they came on and drew off ſeveral times, and attempted nothing. On the 26th they let us reſt. On the 27th a Levant Wind came up, which gave us the opportunity to ſet the Country on fire, which raiſed ſeveral Ambuſhes within Musket-ſhot of our Forts. That night they alarmed us again, and made another Breach in our Line between Monmouth, and where York Fort ſtood; where we conclude they loſt ſtore of men, for we found our Cannon Balls the next day in the very Breach where they had been at work. The 21th we heard one great Volly of ſhot in their Camp. Wedneſday we heard nothing of them, but perceived they had removed their Camp; and yeſterday a Moor came in with a Flag of Truce, about private buſineſs of his own, who aſſures us the Camp is withdrawn, and that the Alcaide is gone to Alcaſar. Vice-admiral Herbert lies with the Ships under his Command in our Bay, and had allotted us a good Reſerve of well diſciplined men.

Genoua, Sept, 6. The French Galleys are daily expected here from Corſica; and it is reported that they are called home that the men may ſerve on board a great Fleet, that is ordered to be fitted out in all haſt at Thoulon. This Senate is not a little troubled about the pretention of the French concerning their being ſaluted firſt by all Nations, and no leſs at the demand of the Spaniards that their Gallies which come into this Port, ſhall be ſaluted firſt by the Caſtles. Several French Troops are ſaid to be on their march for Caſal, which place we fear will at laſt fall into their hands. The French have lately caſt, at Moncelian in Savoy, 28 braſs Guns of a new Invention and extraordinary lightneſs. The Sweepſtakes Frigat is arrived at Legborn from Scandaroon, with ſeveral Merchant Ships from thence and from Alexandria.

Bruſſels, Sept. 22. From Germany we have an account, That the Caſtles of Homburg and Bitch are ſurrendred to the French; That they are fortifiing Landaw, and that it's expected their next deſign will be upon Strasburg. That the Towns of the Lower Aſace are following the Example of thoſe of the Upper, who have all ſworn Homage to the Moſt Chriſtian King. We are told that the King of Denmark hath ſignified to the Dutch Miniſter at Copenhagen, That ſince the States General had obliged him (by their ſeperate Peace) to make his with great diſadvantage, he expects reparation from them for the Charges and Damages he hath ſuſtained during the War. And that that King has writ a very ſharp Letter, upon this ſubject, to the States.

Hague, Sept. 19. The States of Holland have met with ſome difficulty in the matter of the new modelling their Revenues, which they have at laſt, by the interpoſition of the Prince of Orange with the ſeveral Towns, effected. The Daniſh Miniſter here having made complaint to the States, that ſome Goods belonging to the Ambaſſador Hoeg had been arreſted at Rotterdam, the States have publiſhed a Placaet, declaring that the Perſons, Domeſticks, and Goods of all publick Miniſters ſhall be free from all Arreſts for the future. The Elector of Brandenburg's Miniſter here has deſired the States to appoint Deputies to treat with him, about his Maſters pretentions, which they have granted.

Abſtract of the Treaty of Peace between the Crowns of France, Sueden, and Denmark.

I. That there be a firm Peace between the ſaid Kings; and all things done during the War, to the offence of either, forgotten.

II. That all Alliances made by either of the three Kings to the prejudice of the other, ſhall ceaſe and be aboliſhed; and ſhall not make any, which may be ſo for the future.

III. All Hoſtilities to ceaſe within a Fortnight, reckoning from the day of the ſigning, except in Norway, where three weeks ſhall be allowed becauſe of the diſtance.

IV. That the Treaties of Roſchild, Copenhagen, and Weſtphalia ſhall be confirmed, with all the Inſtruments to them appertaining.

V. The King of Denmark promiſes to reſtore whatever he has taken from the Suedes during the War, to wit, Landſcroon, Helſenburg, Marſtrand and Wiſmar, with the Iſles of Rugen and Gothland, and all their dependencies.

VI. In like manner the King of Sueden promiſes
